KTMB Selects New Officers & Board

Reno, NV – Stan Sherer, director of Parks and Recreation for the City of Sparks, has been elected board president of Keep Truckee Meadows Beautiful (KTMB). Other newly elected officers include Vice President Debra Rutledge, national account executive for United Parcel Service; Secretary Dolores Corona-Tuttle, realtor for Keller Williams; and Treasurer Bill Hilke, with College Funding Solutions.

Two new Board members were also elected to the Board including Dan Buhrmann, advisor for Grubb & Ellis and Chris Good, assistant to the City Manager for the City of Reno. Board members include Jim Van Winkle, immediate Past President and judge for City of Reno Municipal Court; Jennifer Budge, parks planner for Washoe County Regional Parks and Open Space; Cliff Low, retired CPA and Kate Thomas, deputy of operations for Secretary of State Ross Miller.

Founded in 1989, Keep Truckee Meadows Beautiful (KTMB) is the region's only non-profit organization committed solely to maintaining the beauty of the Truckee Meadows. Dedicated to creating a cleaner, more beautiful region through education and active community involvement, KTMB programs include Neighborhood, Open Space and River Cleanups, Christmas Tree and Phone Book Recycling, the annual Litter Index, Adopt-A-Park, Adopt-A-Spot, Papermaking and Waste Warriors educational workshops.
